

AFRICAN AMERICAN CONFERENCE ON DISABILITIES

A Decade of Finding Solutions, Building a Stronger Community

FEBRUARY 1 – 17, 2022: REGISTER HERE!

Virtual African American Conference on Disabilities (AACD)

The AACD is the only comprehensive conference in the U.S. that addresses the intersection between race and disabilities.

The conference examines avenues for self-advocacy to ensure the effective provision of services, resources, and enforcement of civil rights in the African American and disability communities.

The conference is a FREE event with 12 highly informative workshops.

Registration is now open.

Certificates of attendance will be provided and Continuing Legal Education (CLE) will be available.

ASL and CART will also be available**

Some of the sessions will include:

Disproportionality in School Discipline*

Being Unapologetically Black: Healing from Trauma*

Legal Rights and Best Practices for Individuals Experiencing a Mental Health Crisis*

The Self Advocacy Movement*

Vaccination Misinformation

The conference is also a great sponsorship opportunity for your organization. Sponsorship Packets are available here.
