Mr. Ripke,
Thank you for your interest in our school. Unfortunately we do not offer public tours of our school. Public tours would disturb our school activities and cannot be accommodated.
Thanks and good luck in your very meaningful work for our community,
H

I apologize for my previous email. I was interrupted as I was writing it and sent it before completing it. It should have said:

We will not be hosting your visit as we do not schedule tours to the public as it is disruptive to the teaching and learning in the school.

Thank you. SF
