

NACDD and Skillset, an assessment platform intended to facilitate job compatibility for people with disabilities, are joining forces during National Disability Employment Awareness Month.

Meet with the co-founders of Skillset, CEO Maya Huber and COO Mor Panfil, to learn how their Israeli company is revolutionizing the job recruitment process with their unique artificial intelligence-based job simulation platform.

Come together as we explore and discuss this unique approach being taken that will undoubtedly spur conversation about what is happening across the U.S. to improve employment opportunities.

Agenda for the meeting:

- Welcome and Introduction by Donna Meltzer, CEO, NACDD
- Presentation by Maya Huber and Mor Panfil of Skillset
- Discussion and Sharing to Improve Employment Outcomes for All
