

Advocates of the Roundtable

Celebrating all of your identity!

Richard Potter
Chief Diversity Officer
State of Delaware

“Embracing and understanding the unique perspectives and experiences of individuals with disabilities is not just a step towards inclusivity, but a leap towards true empathy and empowerment. Let us champion a culture that values diversity in all its forms, recognizing that our differences are our greatest strengths. Together, we can create a more inclusive and accessible world where every voice is heard and every individual is valued.”
